Mission

History and human society are closely related to each other. History is considered to be the mother of all social sciences. Proper understanding of the discipline brings positive social change. At a time when history is deliberately distorted and presented to the new generation, which is instrumental in creating chaos in society. We here in the University impart the subject with utmost transparency. We strive to make the students empowered through a proper footing on the right history leading to brighter future to provide the relevant knowledge, attitude and skills to function effectively in the teaching profession. And also, to be of academic excellence and be committed to afford quality education opportunities and services in the teacher training field to meet the needs of the educational sector and also contribute for the social wellbeing, national growth and to meet global competencies.
