The University shall submit a soft copy to the UGC within a period of 30 days after the award of the degree, for hosting the same in INFLIBNET, accessible to all Institutions /Universities.

15. Evaluation Procedures following Submission of the Thesis

The Ph.D. thesis submitted along with the certificates and fee by a research scholar shall be evaluated by his/her Research Supervisor and at least two external examiners, who are not in employment of the Institution/College.

The external examiners shall be appointed by the Kulapati from the panel of examiners submitted by the Examination Committee as per Clause 13 (d) of the Ordinance.

16. The thesis to be accepted for the award of the Ph.D. degree must comply with the following conditions:
- (a) It must be a piece of research work characterized either by the discovery of the facts or by a fresh approach towards the interpretation of facts. In either case it should evince the candidate's capacity for critical examination and sound judgment.
 - (b) It must be satisfactory in point of language and presentation of the subject matter.
17. The examiners shall categorically recommend in the prescribed proforma acceptance, revision or rejection of the thesis together with detailed comments on the points spelled out in clause 16 of the Ordinance. The examiner must also give a list of the questions he/she wishes to be asked at the viva-voce examination.

18. (a) The examiners may seek clarification of the subject matter on the thesis from the Supervisor. The provision will be incorporated in the letter to be sent to the examiners while sending the thesis.

(b) The Kulapati can recall the thesis from an examiner who fails to send the report within three months of the date of dispatch of the thesis and appoint another examiner.

19. (a) In case both the examiners reject the thesis or one of them rejects the thesis and the other recommends a revision the thesis shall be rejected.

(b) If both the examiners recommend for the revision of the thesis the candidate shall be called upon to revise the thesis in the light of the observations of the examiners.

(c) If one examiner approves the thesis and the other rejects it or recommends for revision the thesis shall be sent to the third examiner drawn from the panel of the examiners by the Kulapati with both the reports of earlier examiners. The names of earlier two examiners shall not be disclosed to the third examiner. The third examiner shall be asked to give his/her opinion on the points raised by the earlier examiners while rejecting or recommending revision of the thesis. The opinion of the third examiner shall be final.

(d) In case both the original examiners accept the thesis for the award of the Ph.D. Degree or in the event of it being referred to the third examiner, the third examiner accepts the thesis for the award of the Ph.D. Degree, the candidate shall be called upon to appear at the viva-voce examination before a board of examiners comprising of the Supervisor, Co-Supervisor (if any) and one of the two examiners selected by the Kulapati who have accepted the thesis for the award of the Ph.D. Degree.

(e) The Supervisor/ Chairman, DRC, Chairman, Board of Studies of the subject concerned, as the case may be, shall be communicated the name of the external examiner appointed by the Kulapati to conduct the viva-voce examination. The date fixed for the viva-voce be informed to the candidate and the Registrar.

Provided that in special circumstances, Kulapati may appoint alternate viva-voce examiners if both the examiners are not in a position to conduct the viva-voce examination.

(f) The viva-voce examination shall be conducted at the University Teaching Department in the subject or at any place fixed by the University for the purpose. The date, time and place of viva-voce examination shall be notified by the Registrar on the University Notice Board about a week in advance. At the time of viva-voce examination the board of examiners shall be provided with the reports of the examiners which shall be returned along with the report of viva-voce examination to the Registrar.

(g) The candidate shall present the work embodied in the thesis before the board of examiners, members of faculty, research scholars and other interested persons. After the presentation of the research work the Board shall ask question together with those questions which have been given along with examiners reports. Others in the audience can also ask questions and the candidate shall reply only those questions which are permitted by the external examiner.

(h) In case the recommendation of the viva-voce examiner differs from that of the thesis examiner or there is difference of opinion between the viva-voce examiners, the candidate shall re-appear at a second viva-voce examination within six months. If the candidate fails to satisfy the viva-voce examiners a second time, his/her thesis shall be finally rejected. Such candidates would be required to pay the prescribed additional fee for the second viva-voce. The external examiner for second viva-voce shall be appointed by the Kulapati.

20. If the examiners recommend that the candidate be asked to revise/improve his/her thesis, the Kulapati shall permit the candidate to resubmit his/her thesis not earlier than six months and not later than eighteen months, the period being counted from the date of the issue of order to the candidate. The candidate shall be provided examiner(s) reports without disclosing the names of the examiners to enable him/her to improve the thesis. All the copies of the thesis shall also be returned to the candidate.

In case the candidate is allowed to resubmit the thesis he/she will have to pay the prescribed fee afresh at the time of resubmission, but it shall not be necessary for him to reproduce any certificate of further attendance at the Institution at which he/she carried out the work.

The resubmitted three copies of the thesis must mark clear mention that it is a revised version.

The thesis shall be got examined as far as possible by the examiners who finally recommended for the revision.

In case both the examiners of revised thesis accept the thesis for the award then the candidate shall be awarded with the Ph.D. Degree on successful viva-voce examination as per provisions of clause 19 of this part.

In case a candidate is asked to revise the thesis under clause 19 (b) and one of the examiners recommends again for revision and the other accepts the thesis for award then the thesis shall be sent to the third examiner. If the third examiner rejects or recommends for revision the thesis shall stand rejected. If, he accepts for the award then the candidate shall be awarded with the Ph.D. Degree on successful viva-voce examination as per provision of clause 19 of this part.

In case a candidate who has been asked to revise to thesis under clause 19 (c) and one of the examiners recommends again for revision and the other accepts the thesis for award then the candidate shall be awarded with the Ph.D. Degree on successful viva-voce examination as per provision of clause 19 of this part.

If the revised thesis is required to be revised a second time it shall automatically stand rejected.

21. A Research Supervisor who is a Professor, at any given point of time, cannot guide more than Eight (8) Ph.D. scholars. An Associate Professor as Research Supervisor can guide up to a maximum of six (6) Ph.D. scholars and an Assistant Professor as Research Supervisor can guide up to a maximum of four (4) Ph.D. scholars. The submission of a thesis shall create a vacancy for the admission of a new candidate for Ph.D. degree under the concerned supervisor.

Provided that the candidates registered with the Co-supervisor shall not be counted for the number of candidates under a Supervisor.
22. No research scholar shall join any other course, study or appear at any other examination conducted by any University leading to a degree (except Certificate/Diploma course of Languages, Research Methodology, Statistics, Computer courses).
23. The candidate, if so desires, is allowed to publish his/her thesis. However, such publication shall state on the title page itself that this was a thesis approved for the award of the Ph.D. Degree of the University.
24. The University agrees that a Ph.D. student is the owner of the copyright in his/her thesis.
25. After the viva-voce, the recommendation of the examiners shall be reported to the Executive Council for the award of Ph.D. Degree to the candidate. One copy of the thesis will be kept in the University Library and another copy will be kept in the Departmental Library of the Institution where the research work was carried out; the third will be returned to the Supervisor.

26. After the declaration of the result the successful candidates may be provided with the copies of reports of examiners who recommended for the award of the degree on payment of the prescribed fee. The reports will not disclose the identity of the examiners.
27. On detection of any irregularity, the University shall take suitable steps to withdraw the degree.
28. Honorary Doctor of Philosophy Degree:
Proposal of honorary degree may be made by any member of the Research Board/RDC and decision of the board will be placed before a committee constituted as per Statute No. 06 of the University. If the committee unanimously recommends that an Honorary Degree or other academic distinction be conferred to any person on the ground that he/she is, in its opinion, a fit and proper person to receive such degree, its recommendation shall be placed before the Academic Council. On approval by the Academic Council, it shall go before the Executive Council. After the recommendation of the Executive Council the Honorary Doctor of Philosophy Degree or Academic Distinction so recommended shall be conferred.
29. Any doubt or dispute about the interpretation in this part (i.e. Part B: Doctor of Philosophy) shall be referred to the Kulapati, whose decision, in his/her capacity as the Chairman, Academic Council, shall be final.
30. The candidates who have been already registered for Ph.D. Degree under the Repealed ordinance will continue to be governed by the Provisions of that ordinance.
